Chapter 1 by Grace1517

You tell me you love me, but I know you're lying, I've seen it all. You say you were busy, you're lying again. You tell me it will never happen again, but I won't believe you because I've seen it all. I've seen it all so don't try to hurt me again. People might call me stupid names, but since I've dated around, I've seen it all. Many don't know that but I am able to tell when you are lying, you're not obvious but I've seen much better liars than you. I just hope that you treat the next girl you date so much better than this. I bet you think I'm heartless, I'm not. I hurt because of the way you treated me but I'm very good at hiding it and don't expect it to be easy to find another girl after this betrayal. After all, girls want to feel cared for and they want to know that you're actually into them. They do not want to feel worthless and that's what you made me feel like. You really live up to the name, "heart crusher" and here I thought it was an exaggeration but I suppose not.
